

Training Others

Learning how we learn!

Duration

Half day

Introduction

Teaching someone else who to do something is an art, we have all experienced the good, the bad and the ugly.

This upbeat and engaging session will take you into the mind of the learner, how it works to understand and remember and will forever change the way you train other people

This is a fun and active session

Stages of Mastery

1. How we learn
2. How we remember
3. Training a skill
4. Training a theory/process
5. Planning and execution

When you walk away

1. You will have the confidence to plan better training no matter with one person or a group
2. You will be able to plan for learning to take place
3. You will have experienced the dos and don'ts
4. You will be able to help people understand and remember instructions, skills and procedures

How to make the most of the training

1. Commit to looking inward and being honest about how people experience your training
2. Make a list of new strategies you can try out
3. Jot down anything that is a light bulb realisation so you don't forget to consider it in your training
